

the IRISH ALPHABET IN BOTANICAL ART

is the inaugural exhibition of the
IRISH SOCIETY OF BOTANICAL ARTISTS.

Working with a team from the National Botanical Gardens, Glasnevin,
artists have created portraits of native plants,
accompanied by the first letter of their Irish name.

Over 60 botanical artists from Ireland and overseas have participated in this project to create 18-letter Irish Alphabets in their own distinctive style.

THE EXHIBITION OPENS AT THE
NATIONAL BOTANIC GARDENS, GLASNEVIN, DUBLIN 9
FROM MAY 2 TO 25, 2014.

MEMBERSHIP FORM

'Inspiring and Encouraging Botanical Art in Ireland'

I wish to become a member of the Irish Society of Botanical Artists and agree to abide by the aims and ethos of the Society as outlined in its Constitution

Name: Title:

Address:

.....

.....

Telephone: Mobile:

Email:

Website:

Signature:

TYPE OF MEMBERSHIP

Full Member €50

Friend €25

If you are attending the Foundation Meeting, we would greatly appreciate payments in cash. If you live within the Republic of Ireland and cannot attend the Foundation Meeting, please provide cheque or bank draft in Euro made out to Irish Society of Botanical Artists (please allow a few weeks for cheque to be debited from your account). If you live outside the Republic, please make payment by Paypal to laragan.hall@gmail.com. If you don't have a Paypal account, please email Jane Stark at that address and she will send you a 'request for payment' (you do not need a Paypal account in order to make the payment).
Postal address: The Library, National Botanic Gardens, Glasnevin, Dublin 9

The IRISH SOCIETY OF BOTANICAL ARTISTS was formed in 2014 in a response to the growing number of people interested in this specific art form. A merging of art and science, botanical artists aim to depict plants in their true form and colour.

The aim of the Society is to facilitate interaction amongst botanical artists in Ireland, and to foster and inspire their creative development.

FULL MEMBERSHIP (Fee: €50)

Entitles you to sit on committee (once resident in Ireland), vote (once in attendance at meetings), exhibit in Society exhibitions*, participate in Society events, pay less to attend events organised in conjunction with other bodies and to receive the Society's yearly publication.

* Participation in exhibitions organised by the ISBA is a benefit of membership but may incur an additional cost to artists. These costs can include, but are not exclusive to, postage, framing, hanging, invigilation etc.

FRIEND MEMBERSHIP (Fee: €25)

Entitles you to participation in Society events other than exhibitions and to receive the Society's yearly publication.

Contact: info@irishbotanicalartists.ie

Website: www.irishbotanicalartists.com

'Inspiring and Encouraging Botanical Art in Ireland'